NHS workers need breaks, warns union

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

HOSPITAL WORKERS doing long hours are unable to take breaks because of low staffing numbers, a union has warned.

Unison said it had heard accounts which included a midwife at the Luton & Dunstable Hospital sleeping in the canteen so she could attend a meeting the next morning.

The union, which has around 800 members at the hospital, said it had also heard stories of workers taking 'five to ten minute breaks' despite working shifts which can at times be up to 14 hours long.

All this week Unison has been running its 'Take A Break' campaign which is urging NHS staff all over the country to take their breaks, and ambulance staff not to work any unpaid overtime.

Frank Radcliffe, a Unison local organiser, said the matter was a 'basic health and safety' issue as staff ended up doing longer shifts by not taking their breaks.

The L&D said it appreciated the 'dedication of colleagues who go the extra mile' and was working to recruit more staff so that 'all staff are able to take their breaks'.

Kelvin Hopkins, MP for Luton North, said he would be 'extremely concerned' if hospital staff were unable to have rest periods during the day.

Mr Radcliffe said: "There are a lot of people that feel that they have to do it because it's a caring profession. They feel obligated to do it because if they don't, then who else is going to do the job?"

"I was speaking to a midwife who was sleeping in the canteen because she had a meeting the next morning.

"The whole of the NHS is aware of this and so are the L&D. They encourage people to take breaks but I don't know if they monitor it. Someone said to me that if people took their breaks the whole NHS would grind to a halt."

An L&D spokeswoman said: "At Luton & Dunstable University Hospital, although we appreciate the dedication of colleagues who go the extra mile, we actively encourage all staff to take their breaks.

"Staff are reminded of the health benefits of taking breaks with information from our Occupational Health Team. This is aimed not just at ward staff but includes those in offices and other work areas of the hospital.

"We are currently pro-active recruiting staff at all levels, especially nurses - from across the UK and from Europe, as this will ensure all staff are able to take their breaks."

Mr Hopkins said: "I fully support UNISON's 'Take a Break' campaign. Not only are our nurses entitled to their rest periods during a working day - or night - but they deserve them. We need to improve the quality of working life for nurses, not put them under more pressure. Nurses are very dedicated and so few are able to take rest periods because of staffing shortages, increased pressure and workloads."

Top curry award for Indian tapas restaurant

A CHEF at an Indian tapas restaurant has been named the country's best curry chef. Ravi Bhikha (above), owner of Papa Js Tapas in Wellington Street, said he was 'delighted' that one of his chefs, Arvind Horo, had scooped the award at this year's English Curry Awards.

The ceremony was held at the AJ Bell stadium in Manchester on Monday and saw over 10,000 nominations sent in for consideration by judges.

In addition to winning the overall award, Mr Horo was also named as the best curry chef in the south of England.

Papa Js has been open in Luton for ten years and opened another branch in Milton Keynes eight weeks ago.

Mr Bhikha said he wanted to thank his chef team because 'without them we would not have won his award'.

He added: "We are delighted to be honest and it's great to be recognised. We want to thank everyone for their votes.

"It was a good evening and we had a great time. It's a good award and it was good to win.

"We are really proud and we are thankful to everyone who voted for Papa Js."

Man is found guilty of assault and faces prison

BY JULIA SUTTON
 editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

ONE of two men who took part in an attack which left the victim in a coma has been found guilty of assault and now faces a prison sentence.

James Early, 40, was found guilty of punching Henry Huggins, 48, to the ground and remanded in custody to await sentence.

Mr Huggins hasn't woken since August 8, 2013 when he was attacked first by Early, and then by his friend Stuart Docherty outside his Luton home.

Docherty, who has already pleaded guilty to the attack, had stamped on Henry's head as he lay unconscious on the ground.

On Wednesday, Early was found not guilty by a jury at Luton Crown Court of causing grievous bodily harm with intent to Mr Huggins.

Instead, he was found guilty of assaulting Mr Huggins occasioning actual bodily harm.

His sentence was adjourned for a pre-sentence report and he has been remanded in custody.

Judge David Farrell QC told Early the offence he had been convicted of crossed "the custody threshold".

Mr Huggins' niece Corene Campbell, who is a member of the 2004 X-Factor finalists 'Voices with Soul', said she and all the members of his family are praying for a miracle and that he recovers.

VICTIM: Henry Huggins

The court heard how Mr Huggins was punched to the ground by Early.

When he fell he struck his head on a concrete pathway outside the block of flats on Whipperley Ring on the Farley Hill Estate.

As he lay on the ground unconscious he then had his head stamped on by Docherty.

The attack happened outside the flats where Mr Huggins was a frequent visitor to his girlfriend's home, living there himself for long periods.

Also living in a nearby flat was Mr Early. The court was told "a lot of bad feeling" had arisen between Mr Huggins and Early and his friend, Docherty.

The prosecutor Michael Speak said Mr Huggins owned a dog called 'Soldier' who could be troublesome and aggressive.

He said: "It seems it was the source of irritation to this defendant, Mr Early."

Mark Meah, a friend of Mr Huggins, who is black, told how Early and Docherty would racially abuse him. He said he was with his friend on one occasion when they encountered the men on the street who were shouting and using the 'n' word.

Mr Meah said he had heard Mr Early say: "I am going to slice you up, kill your missus and cut your dog up."

Early claimed in court he had acted in self-defence and protected himself when Mr Huggins had gone for him.

Police probe reports of woman bundled into van

AN INVESTIGATION has been launched after a woman was seen being bundled into a van near a school in Dunstable.

Officers said the incident happened on Saturday, October 11 in Lowther Road at 6.35pm.

Two witnesses saw a silver Citroen van pull up by the zebra crossing near the Ardley Hill Lower School and two men got out.

The witnesses thought they saw the men manhandling a young woman, thought to be in her twenties, into the van parked by the crossing. One of the men swore at the witnesses who then cycled away.

The van drove off in the direction of the roundabout on Langdale Road and the witnesses contacted the police as they were concerned for the welfare of the woman.

PC Ben Stone, from Bedfordshire Police, said: "Police reacted quickly to the call but when they arrived at the scene the van had gone and there was no one there."

"A search of the area has so far yielded no evidence of an incident and we need to trace the woman to ensure she is safe."

He added: "Incidents like this are very rare and unusual which is why we are taking this so seriously and investigating fully."

"We do not know if the woman knew the men and we are looking for anyone else who witnessed this incident or may have been involved in it to contact us."

Anyone with information relating on this incident can contact Bedfordshire Police on 101.

Zoo awaiting record confirmation

A ZOO is waiting to find out if it has broken the world record for the highest number of origami elephants ever displayed.

More than 30,000 paper elephants were created for Whipsnade Zoo's record Guinness World Records attempt last month.

At the final count, the zoo said it had 33,764 elephants, more than the 30,000 it originally wanted to display to represent every Asian elephant left in the wild.

The previous record stood at only 1,500 origami figurines.

Four experts from the British Origami Society took six hours to count all the paper elephants, some of which had been sent in from as far afield as Japan, Australia and the USA.

Whipsnade also had support from Olympic gold medalist rower Alex Gregory and Capital FM DJ Dominic Byrne.

Jordan Christmas, ZSL Whipsnade Zoo's project co-ordinator, said: "It is

HOPE: Guinness World Records are reviewing the video of the creations being counted so brilliant that we hit our target and managed to make over 30,000 origami elephants, with some to spare.

"We hoped this would draw people's attention to the plight of endangered species like Asian elephants, and the vital need for conservation work that helps protect them.

"We were overwhelmed by the response, not only by our amazing ZSL Whipsnade Zoo visitors and staff, but also by people all over the world who cared enough about the cause to join in and send us their paper elephants.

"Hopefully this has raised awareness and shown people that conservation is something everyone can get involved with."

South Asian students score Arsenal tickets

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

TWENTY South Asian students from Luton Sixth Form College were due to take their seats at Arsenal's Emirates Stadium yesterday as part of the 'From Headscarves to Football Scarves' campaign.

The initiative is spearheaded by Luton Sixth Form College, the National Asians in Football Forum, the Football Supporters' Federation (FSF) and Kick It Out and is designed to get young, South Asian women involved in football and show them it is not an intimidating atmosphere.

Butch Fazal, student development adviser at the college and chairman of the National Asians in Football Forum, said: "The initiative is all about raising awareness of the lack of South Asian females in football, not just watching the Premier League but participation across the game.

"Going to these matches will give them a chance to articulate and share their experiences, and encourage their friends to go along.

"Ultimately they are the mothers of the next generation of South Asians, and if they know it's a safe environment to go to they can hopefully lift the stigma attached to football and supporters in the grounds.

"Things have changed since the darker days of the 70s and 80s."

The initiative kicked off in March this year when a group of students from the college went to see Luton Town's 3-0 win over Chester at Kenilworth Road (pictured left).

It was then followed up with a trip to Wembley, for England's 3-0 win over Peru in a World Cup warm-up game.

Mr Fazal added: "With the partnership with FSF and Kick It Out, and Arsenal endorsing the initiative, we are going from strength to strength and are hopeful for the future."

Calls for help from homeless are rising

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

FIGURES have shown the number of people seeking services from a local homelessness charity have almost trebled since 2000.

The statistics, released by Luton-based charity New Opportunities and Horizons (NOAH) show that the number of people seeking help across Bedfordshire has gone from 500 between April 1999 and April 2000 to 1,200 in the same period from 2013-14.

They were raised at a conference held by the group where organisations with a responsibility for helping the homeless were called together to discuss the possibility of working together to tackle the problem in the town.

The conference, titled Let's Get Together, united academics, the church and government in a wide-ranging discussion on deprivation in the country.

NOAH's chief executive, Jim O'Connor, said: "We are of the opinion in NOAH that present approaches do not provide the solutions that are required and I believe that view is held by the NHS and the three Bedfordshire Councils among others."

"Given the economies they have to find it is, I feel, incumbent on all of us who have a responsibility to homeless people to work more effectively together."

"NOAH's Let's Get Together Conference had that objective and with the powerful input of excellent addresses and the readiness of everyone to participate in constructive discussion, that aim was achieved. What's now important is taking that forward into action which everyone who attended seems committed to do."

Luton Borough Councillor Tom Shaw, portfolio holder for housing, places the blame on government cuts made to the Supported Living Fund.

Cllr Shaw said: "The government say the council can replenish the funds lost through cuts themselves, but there is no way we can do that right now and as a result, charities which need that support are going to suffer drastic consequences."

"It's a direct attack on the worst off in the town and across the country."

"Charities like NOAH, hostels and other organisations have all the expertise to help, but they just don't have the money."

"The only way they help these people is by working together."

NOAH estimates that at any one time, there are 22 people sleeping rough in Luton.

It is estimated that homelessness costs more than £20,000 per person per year, with demand on hospital Accident and Emergency Services from homeless people being eight times greater than that of the general population.

Father's Ebola crisis fears

A PANICKING dad who works in Luton has warned 'we're all going to be dead in six months' after insisting his daughter wears a face mask to school during the Ebola crisis.

Jon O'Brien, of Turvey, Beds, who works at a recycling company has told Sharnbrook Upper School, Beds, that he wants the student to wear protective clothing to prevent her catching the virus.

But he has been told it would not be 'appropriate' and now he claims the school has called social services after he threatened to educate her at home.

Mr O'Brien said: "I'm not going to wait for my child to catch Ebola I'm going to send my child to school with a mask and bloody goggles. I should be able to protect her and I will do what's best for her."

"I'm not part of the 95 per cent of sheep that run this country and do everything they are told."

CONCERNED: Jon O'Brien wants to protect his daughter from Ebola

TOWIE stars hit the Mall with students

NEARLY 7,000 students took part in a special shopping night at the Mall earlier this week.

The event, which took place on Tuesday, saw the shopping centre opened exclusively for students, and they were joined by The Only Way Is Essex (TOWIE) stars Danielle Armstrong and James Lock.

Kate Staniforth, the Mall's marketing manager, said: "We're thrilled that so many students enjoyed themselves on the night."

'Stranger danger' warning for pupils

BY CARL MUNGASI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

PARENTS and carers been sent 'stranger danger' letters after an 11-year-old girl and her seven-year-old sister were approached by a man on Tuesday morning.

Bedfordshire Police said the pupils, from Denbigh Primary School, had been approached at a set of traffic lights on Bishopsclote Road by a man who had been fiddling with a padlock on his bicycle.

He asked them 'if they needed any help' before touching the 11-year-old on her back. The girls then crossed the road and left the scene.

Speaking after the incident, a spokeswoman for the force said officers did 'not know what his intention was'.

The man has been described as being white, with short spikey hair and wearing a yellow hi-vis jacket, dark jeans and white gloves.

Denbigh Primary School has sent letters to parents and carers reminding them to speak to their children about 'stranger danger' and the 'importance of keeping themselves safe when out and about'.

A Luton council spokesman said: "The school has acted responsibly here which reflects their wider work around supporting children to develop the skills to keep themselves safe. If parents would like more information on keeping children safe there is information available on the Luton Safeguarding Children's Board website www.lutonlscb.org.uk."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

"The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Tom a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Luton is 'worst in the East for child poverty'

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

A STUDY has revealed Luton has the worst child poverty statistics in the East of England, with almost 33 per cent living below the bread-line.

The figures, released by End Child Poverty on Wednesday, show that after living expenses, 32.94 per cent of children are living below the poverty line.

There is a huge gap in the figures between different areas of the town. Biscot sees 44.31 per cent of children living in poverty, with South and Dallow following close behind at 39.76 per cent and 39.6 per cent respectively.

A spokeswoman for Luton Borough Council said: "With the current economic climate together with austerity measures including welfare reforms, we recognise that Luton has a large proportion of its children living in families in difficult financial circumstances, so we are not surprised by the findings.

"To tackle unemployment the council is working with its partners and local businesses providing a strategic and coordinated approach to increase the skills of the local population and we are actively working on attracting inward investment in the town.

"We are now undertaking a detailed child poverty needs assessment and will be using this to develop our new anti-poverty strategy."

Where will busway cost end?

SIR – After reading about the cost to put two bus stops on the busway at £100,000 each, I couldn't help but wonder how a bus stop could cost that much. Are they covered up with a canteen in each?

It's bad enough the cost of the whole thing, I've just finished reading and switched on the TV and see that the busway in Cambridge is having £30 million spent on it to repair the damage that has appeared.

So after three years it is going to cost the council in Cambridge all that. So what is Luton's going to cost after three years?

Eye care is so important

SIR – What does your sight mean to you? When we recently asked 2000 people, sight was voted as the sense they valued most, but over 50 per cent of Brits are failing to get their eyes tested regularly.

I volunteer as an ophthalmologist for sight-saving charity Orbis and we conducted a poll to discover the UK's attitude to eye health which also revealed that 93 per cent do not consider it to be a top concern.

This lax attitude is at odds with the alarming reality that the number of people at risk of losing their sight in the UK is set to double to over four million by 2050.

We are lucky in this country to have ready access to world class services: should we

Give the marathon a chance

SIR – I would like to point out that next Sunday, October 26, the Luton half marathon will be taking place. This event is in aid of charity.

I am not involved in the organizing of the event. But I use my common sense.

On that day, why don't we all leave our cars in the garage.

That will give the runners a chance to run the course in safety.

Perhaps people can do their shopping on the Saturday. I know this is asking a lot, as most people living in Luton love to spend every day of the week driving their cars around and around the congested roads of the town.

Or how about reading a book or taking up a hobby. Save your petrol. It is after all only one day.

Leave your car at home for once.

John Tucker
Bracklesham Gardens

notice any problems we can simply walk into an optician and receive a diagnosis.

This is not the case in developing countries where access to eye care might require a 200-mile journey and developing a cataract can literally be a matter of life or death.

Orbis trains eye care teams in developing countries, with the help of volunteers like myself. Through training we can establish self-sufficient, successful ophthalmic centres, often in remote areas, so that local doctors and nurses can help more people in their community.

We recently launched an appeal to raise money for our sight-saving work in Ethiopia where over four million people are blind or visually impaired. The money raised will help people suffering from treatable diseases like cataracts and trachoma.

Eighty per cent of blindness globally is preventable or avoidable and it can cost very little to save someone's sight. We'd like to ask you to transform a life by donating £3 today: www.visionforethiopia.orbis.org.

Access to fashion an issue

SIR – Congratulations to Paralympian and British Polio Fellowship ambassador Anne Wafula Strike on receiving her MBE and for using this achievement to make the case for those like herself living with Polio and Post Polio Syndrome (PPS) to have greater access to practical, fashionable clothing.

Clothes make a big difference to the way we all feel about ourselves and for too long those with Polio and PPS and the disabled in general have been poorly served.

The issue only seems trivial to those of us fortunate enough to be able to take such things for granted.

Access to fashion, like so many other aspects of life, has long been a problem for the disabled. For those like Anne using a wheelchair, there are practical as well as style factors to consider.

Anne collected her MBE in a dress created by international designer Izzy Camilleri a specialist in disabled fashion, which made Anne look fantastic and capped Anne's efforts to raise awareness of the issue.

By wearing a dress made entirely out of train tickets in July (the first of its kind) Anne called for the needs of those with Polio and PPS to be addressed.

DOES anyone remember the Big Society? It was Prime Minister Dave's big idea when he first came to office. Basically this country was in a mess, thanks to Labour and Gordon Brown*, and we are all in it together and must all work to get us out of the mess.

That meant communities would help themselves and each other because the government cannot do it all, as it had no money because...

Some, of the more cynical disposition, thought this was a Con con, to get ordinary people to do the government's work for nothing. A bit like what has happened to health workers. But no Dave's big idea was that we become a nation again, all pulling in the same direction to dig us out of the hole we were in, thanks to...

Yet somehow everyone had forgotten all about it until the Minister for the Big Society had to resign recently, and he had obviously misunderstood his brief. So was it a con, was it a good idea that failed or has Call-me-Dave just forgotten about it? I think it has just slipped his mind. He has probably suffered what is known in Westminster, or will be after this column, as a Miliband moment.

What with fighting wars,

Surely Dave's big idea hasn't been forgotten?

bashing Europe, fighting the poor, bashing UKIP, fighting the deficit, bashing the trades unions (just be grateful the bishops were behaving themselves), it was too much to ask for him to remember society at all, let alone a big one.

The Blessed Margaret thought there was no such thing as society anyway, so he was on a sticky wicket with some of his backbenchers. So will it make a return in time for the next election? Will he promise to bring us all back together and work to achieve all those things he has yet failed to achieve?

Will Nigel Farage be offered the post as Minister for Big Society in the Tory-UKIP coalition? We shall see but surely, unlike Lee Mack and David Mitchell, he wouldn't lie to us?

TALKING of Big Society, we are heading for Children in Need. Now I understand and respect all, or at least most, people who give up their time for charity. But I have two questions on Children in Need.

The first is do all the stars and celebrities give their time freely? The second is why does one of the richest countries in the world, where the rich are certainly getting richer, have to hold an annual charity to help children in need. Instead of celebrating should we not feel slightly ashamed?

I think it would make much more sense if government found the money to ensure there are no children in need and we held an annual charity day to raise funds to pay MPs expenses.

*Gordon Brown has had one of the worst presses of any recent Prime Minister. But he may go down in history as the politician who stopped this country joining the Euro, saved British banks after Lehmann Brothers bank precipitated a world banking crisis – and helped to solve the global banking problem, and saved the Union when it looked as though the British parliament had been outwitted by Salmond. I wonder how history will treat Blair and Cameron?

WHEEL GOOD: Abbey hits the road in the Adam Rocks Air

Abbey's the model candidate for Adam

A SHORT film starring model Abbey Clancy has been produced by Vauxhall to promote its Adam Rocks Air cars. It shows last year's Strictly Come Dancing winner getting dressed and striking suggestive poses before driving around with her fictional band 'The Vauxhalls'.

Vauxhall said the film explored 'the expression of individuality through fashion, music and attitude'. See it online at luton-dunstable.co.uk.

Teens 'web friend' meetings concern

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A UNIVERSITY of Bedfordshire psychologist has said it is 'worrying and concerning' that over a third of teenagers have met people in person they first met online.

Dr Emma Short analysed research done by polling firm ComRes which revealed that 36 per cent of 15 to 18 year olds had admitted to meeting someone via social media.

Dr Short, director of the National Centre for Cyberstalking Research, which is based at the university, said she questioned what safety measures the teenagers took when they went to meet their online friends.

She said: "The fact that a third have met someone they met online is worrying and concerning."

"They have lost sight - to a degree - of the risk because anyone that you meet online, even if you negotiate with them [and] talk to them, they are still actually a stranger."

"You only know what they're telling you in chat. You only have the words on the screen."

"You don't know if they are who they say they are."

"Even though it feels a safe place, it's really important to never mistake an online contact for anything other than a stranger."

ComRes interviewed 1,015 British 15 to 18 year olds online between August 21-28.

The study also revealed that more than a quarter considered online friends and followers more important than real-life relationships.

New Wardown

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

PLANS for a new bandstand to be built in Luton's Wardown Park are well underway.

The project has gained support from local political figures and the organisers are confident the new bandstand will be in construction by early next year.

Alan Corkhill, chairman of the Rotary Bandstand project said: "We have support from three MPs, Kelvin Hopkins, Gavin Shuker and Andrew Selous.

"George Lovett, architect and senior lecturer at the University of Bedfordshire, has been chosen to design the project.

"We expect full planning permission to be granted by the early part of 2015 and we are hoping to have a ground-breaking ceremony on February 23.

"We have put in an application to a local charity and Luton Culture to see if we can get any grants to help with the construction.

"We also have a large number of private donations coming in to help with the costs."

The group has also invited local youngsters to submit designs for the bandstand, with prizes for the best.

"Our main plan currently is to push the competition and get the kids involved in the project.

"We are hoping to have a presence at both Lighting Up Luton on Saturday, December 6 and the Stockwood Park Christmas Fair the following day to get kids involved in the project," Alan added.

So far, a number of schools and organisations have got involved in the competition and there are prizes on offer to benefit both the individual and the organisation, or school, they represent.

The prizes are:

- Under-11: Designer - £250. School or organisation - £500

- 11-15: Designer - £250. School/organisation - £1,000

- 16-22: Designer - £2,500 bursary. School/organisation - £500

Entries close on December 31.

On what the new bandstand will bring to Luton, Mr Corkhill said: "I hope it will appeal to everyone, young and old and from all walks of life and all of the diverse communities in the town.

"Wardown Park is in a state of significant change at the moment and we want to be a part of it.

"All towns have a park as one of their focal points and we want to contribute to its regeneration by giving the town the bandstand as a gift."

The honours, organised by Love Luton, are a way to recognise unsung heroes who make a difference to the lives of others.

You can nominate by going to www.loveluton.org.uk/lutonsbestawards and entering online, or by collecting a form at locations including the Town Hall and library.

Nominations must be submitted by next Monday.

Shortlisted nominees will be invited to a glittering awards ceremony at The Luton Hoo Hotel on Friday, November 28. Here is a reminder of some of last year's winners.

■ Luton's Most Outstanding Citizen (sponsored by The Mayor of Luton)

Winner - Sarah Allan

Sarah was the driving force behind the Luton in Harmony campaign and instrumental in its success. Sarah has fought hard to address the national media's unfair portrayal of the town and has done countless interviews putting across the positive message. Her passion for

Authority consulting on transport policy

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A COUNCIL has launched a consultation on its school transport policy following its closure of three schools earlier this year.

Central Bedfordshire Council said the consultation on its Home to School Transport Policy was 'designed to clarify eligibility criteria' for pupils affected by plans to shut Brewers Hill, Streetfield and Ashton Middle Schools.

The authority said it wanted to ensure that affected pupils and families were treated fairly by the policy. The decision to close the schools was agreed in August after the council said they were 'no longer financially viable'.

Councillor Mark Versallion, from Central Bedfordshire, said: "Central Bedfordshire Council transports almost 6,000 pupils each day to schools across the region and this amendment will ensure children, their parents and carers are not disadvantaged in situations where schools are subject to closure by the council.

"It was taken in the light of falling pupil numbers at each of the schools and concerns being raised about the significant risks posed by allowing the schools to remain open without secure finances and the negative impact this could have on children's education."

The consultation closes on November 8 and the final decision on the policy will be taken on December 8.

Only a week until marathon big day

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

IN a week's time runners from all over the country will be setting off in this year's half-marathon.

Last year 500 people turned up to take part in the event which was won in a time of 01:19:04 by Dan Madams, from the London Heathside AC.

This year, England and International long-distance athlete Darren Deed will take on the 13.1-mile course around the town.

Luton council says this year it will be running rolling road closures which follow the runners as they go along the route.

The race starts in Stockwood Park at 10am and then goes down Cutenhoe Road before turning into the grounds of Luton Hoo.

It will then loop around the estate and out, turning onto Gipsy Lane before joining Old Bedford Road.

After this the runners will head down Old Bedford Road, through Wardown Park, before returning to the road and then briefly joining New Bedford Road through

ON YOUR MARKS: The half-marathon will start next Sunday at 10am

Kingsdown Avenue. Then it is on to Barnfield Road and Ringwood Road, before weaving around the Rookery Drive area.

After that, the route re-joins Old Bedford Road and then it is straight to the finish by the town hall.

A spokesman for Luton council said: "A fully qualified and experienced convoy will follow the race and will lift the road closures as soon as it is safe to do so, allowing traffic to flow as normal."

"All road closures will be lifted by no later than 1.30pm."

Marshalls will be provided by Stopsley Striders, a local running group, to ensure the event runs smoothly by marshalling at the event.

A spokesperson for the club said: "Having a traffic-free and safe course for runners to participate in allows the town to develop a prestigious event which can showcase Luton in a positive light."

Visit www.loveluton.org.uk/halfmarathon for more information on the event.

HELP: The union wants to tackle mental health stigma

Pledge for students with mental illnesses

UNIVERSITY students have signed a pledge to help challenge the stigma surrounding mental health.

The group, from the University of Bedfordshire Students' Union, said they wanted to promote the 'look after your mate' campaign from mental health charity Student Minds.

They say they're committed to supporting students with mental health issues and wanted to 'make sure people know where they can go for help'.

Arrests made over pellet gun attacks

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

TWO teenagers have been arrested following reports that several residents and drivers have been hit by pellets fired from an air weapon.

Detectives said they have arrested the youths in connection with assaults reported between October 9 and October 10.

Several people in the Ravenhill Way and Holkham Close area of the town reported being hit by pellets. On October 9 at 11pm a man was walking home along Ravenhill Way when he suffered bruising to his elbow after being hit by a pellet.

The following morning at 9.30am a woman was walking along the same road and was hit by a pellet, causing bruising to her shoulder.

A resident in Holkham Close also suffered bruising to her shoulder on October 10 when she was hit by a pellet as she hung her washing out at 9.50am.

Bedfordshire Police said there have been no serious injuries so far but they've had reports from drivers in the area who believe their cars were hit by pellets too.

Detective Constable Colin Knight said: "Although we have arrested two teenagers, aged 17 and 18 years, in relation to these incidents we still need witnesses to come forward to assist this investigation. I would reassure anyone with information that they can speak with officers in complete confidence."

TWENTY GP practices in Luton have switched to a new prescription service which allows them to digitally send prescriptions direct to pharmacies. Among the new service providers is Pharmacy2U which allows people to order medication by phone, online or via an app, and then have it delivered. Dr Julian Harrison, director at Pharmacy2U, said the new service was 'quicker and easier'.

Girl, 14, punched and knocked out

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A 14-YEAR-OLD schoolgirl was punched in the face and left unconscious in what police have described as a 'shocking ordeal'.

The assault happened earlier this month but officers have only just revealed the details of the attack which happened on October 7.

The girl had been walking home between 7pm and 7.30pm along Crawley Green Road towards the Vauxhall Way underpass after visiting a friend.

As she neared the Falconer flats car park she was approached by a group of men.

One of the men grabbed her arm while the others shouted and cheered.

The whole group then tried to grab the teenager's bag and one punched her in the face, resulting in her being knocked out.

She regained consciousness a short time later on a green area on the opposite side of the road next to the junction of Hartsfield Road.

Bedfordshire Police said the men appeared not to have taken anything and carried her across the road before leaving her there.

Anyone with information about this assault should contact PC Carroll, at Luton Police Station, on 01582 394211, or Bedfordshire Police on 101, or text information to 07786 200011.

Alternatively, you can call Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

You tutu can enjoy the ballet as magical Swan Lake flies in

BALLET

SWAN LAKE

Grove Theatre, Dunstable
Thursday, October 23, 7.30pm

THERE is a rare chance to witness one of the most famous ballets of all time on your doorstep when Swan Lake comes to Dunstable.

Performed by the Russian State Ballet and Opera House, based in the city of Komi, the classic tale is one of love, deceit and sorcery and whether good will triumph over evil.

The story starts at a royal ball, where Prince Siegfried is told to choose a future wife, but disappointed he can't marry for love, he leaves the ball.

While out, he encounters the beautiful Odette who he instantly falls for.

However, Odette is cursed by the sorcerer Von Rothbart, turning her into a swan by day and a human by night, all part of a plan to spark a love triangle between Odette, Siegfried and Von Rothbart's daughter Odile.

Von Rothbart then casts an enchantment on Odile to make her the spitting image of Odette; but will Siegfried see through his sinister plot?

The show features the iconic Dance of the Little Swans and Song of Swans, which have been entertaining audiences since the show was first performed in Moscow in 1877.

Producer of the performance, Alexej Ignatow, said: "We feel that everyone should have the opportunity to enjoy ballet in their lifetime, which is why we are dedicated to presenting full and positive new productions in regional theatres.

"We want to give the opportunity to local audiences to experience these classics, give them great pleasure and inspire them to want more."

The show will be coming here for one night only and Mr Ignatow stresses that people should come along and give it a go, even if you feel it's not something for you.

He added: "There is a misconception that you need to understand music or ballet to enjoy these shows, but it is really for everyone."

Featuring the music of revered composer Tchaikovsky, it is an opportunity to witness a professional ballet accompanied by one of the most famous musical scores of all time.

Tickets are £24.50. You can book and get more details by calling 01582 60 20 80 or visiting grovetheatre.co.uk.

Please, sir - can we have some more music from Oliver!

OLIVER!

Luton Library Theatre

Thursday, October 30 – Saturday, November 1

ONE of the best-loved British musicals will be making an appearance at Luton Library Theatre when Oliver! arrives for a series of shows at the end of the month.

Adapted by Lionel Bart from the classic Oliver Twist by Charles Dickens, the play debuted on the West End in 1960 and now the Phoenix Players have brought it to Luton.

When taken to Broadway in 1963, it was nominated for nine Tony awards, winning three and was later adapted into a much-loved film in 1968.

The story follows a young orphan boy, born in a Victorian-era workhouse, which was set in Dunstable in the film adaptation.

Oliver is eventually sold to an undertaker, before escaping and making it to London where he joins a gang of young orphans led by Fagin, who teaches them to pickpocket.

Running into trouble with the law, before being betrayed by those he thought cared for him, it shows Oliver's journey from a workhouse orphan to finally finding a loving home and family.

The performance features all of the classic songs which have grown to be some of the most famous musical numbers of all time.

These include Food Glorious Food, Where is Love, Pick-a-Pocket, As Long As He Needs Me, Consider Yourself and more.

Tickets are £10, or £8 concessions, and are available from Luton Culture, either by visiting <http://www.lutonculture.com/whats-on/whats-on/2014/10/30/oliver/> or by calling 01582 878100.

Storming live show from dub legends will get you in the zone

MUSIC

DREADZONE

The Hat Factory, Luton

Saturday, November 1

DUB legends Dreadzone will come to Luton next month.

Last year the band celebrated their 20th anniversary by releasing their latest album, Escapades, marking a storied career.

The band, with roots in The Clash's Mick Jones' Big Audio Dynamite, have enjoyed a career spanning the credibility of a Creation Records release, major moves on Virgin and independent releases including through their own label Dubwise Records and are still going strong.

The band reached their peak in the mid-90s, having a top 40 album, Second Light, in 1995 and also became a festival favourite, performing at Glastonbury that same year.

The album also received airplay on Radio 1 by John Peel, who declared the record one of his favourites of all time.

It also gave the band their only top 20 single, Little Britain, the following year.

Their most recent album was recorded at Mick Jones' London studios and co-produced by original Dreadzone member and co-founder Tim Bran.

The core members; Greg Dread, original bassmaster Leo Williams, the unmistakable MC Spee, legendary reggae vocalist Earl 16 alongside Chris Compton on guitar and Basil on technology, make up the current Dreadzone live line up. Hit records, critical acclaim and a huge, devoted fan base are theirs, due in part, to their utterly storming live shows.

As well as live favourites from their back catalogue the band will be showcasing new tracks from Escapades.

Support comes from the hotly tipped Exit Black. The Luton quartet have already been featured in Kerrang! magazine and made a number of appearances on BBC Introducing.

They take a fresh outlook on rock music and their debut EP The Sound has received rave reviews, along with their live shows.

Tickets cost £15.

Connells

PRESS RELEASE

SEPTEMBER 2014

Prime time to sell, says Connells

Agent asks sellers to set them the 'Six Week Challenge'

As the nights start to draw in, local estate agency Connells in Luton is pleased to report it is seeing several rays of light in the local property market. The agent has experienced a rush of activity as homeowners look to secure a sale and move before the Christmas holiday season begins so has reinstated its 'Six Week Challenge' campaign, giving homeowners a chance to sell their property in record time and for the best price.

Connells' 'Six-Week Challenge' is designed to help those looking to move home find a buyer more quickly. Utilising all of the team's expertise and knowledge of the local housing market, Connells pulls out all the stops to get participating properties off the market in under six weeks.

"There are many reasons why people want to sell their homes as quickly as possible," says Lee Clark, Branch Manager for Connells. "For many, it's down to personal circumstances, such as relocating for work, while some have set their sights on a dream home and need to secure a sale on their current property before putting in an offer.

"Whatever the reason, Connells' 'Six-Week Challenge' is designed to help these individuals achieve a sale in a short timeframe," Lee continues. "We've run this campaign before with much success so I would urge anyone wanting to sell their home quickly to contact us at the branch and achieve winning results in just six weeks."

Connells in Luton is seeing a greater degree of confidence across the market from sellers. This is great news for buyers who are getting more choice but demand is still outweighing supply.

"It is not unusual at this time of year to see more people looking to move," Lee continues. "We often find with the summer over and children back at school people can turn their attention to moving home. Whether you are buying for the first time, upsizing, downsizing or looking for that ultimate dream home, now is a great time to get the ball rolling if you want to move before Christmas."

If you are interested in participating in Connells' 'Six Week Challenge' and would like to book a free market appraisal, please contact your local Connells branch on 01582 450999 or email: Luton@connells.co.uk.

Your CV

When you send your CV off to a potential employer, remember that you won't be the only one. Hundreds of other people could be applying for the job as well.

So what are you going to do to make you stand out from the crowd? Why should an employer take a chance on you instead of someone else?

Your CV is your first real chance to sell yourself to a potential employer. Most employers will scan through a CV in about 30 seconds so you need to grab their attention from the start - and make them want to invite you for an interview.

There are five main areas to consider when writing your CV:

- Make sure your CV looks the part. Your CV should look clean and tidy - don't scrawl it out on a piece of A4 paper. If you haven't got access to a PC or printer, ask a friend or use your local library. Use a good quality paper and steer clear of fancy borders and front covers.
- Watch out for silly spelling and grammar mistakes. They make you look lazy and show employers that you don't really care. It's not difficult to do a spell check on your PC and if you're really stuck then don't just guess, reach for a dictionary. Get a friend to read through your CV for you - a second opinion is always useful.
- Make sure your CV is well organised. When you list your previous jobs, make sure the dates are correct and try not to leave any gaps. If you took time out to go travelling then say so - employers won't mark you down just because you've tried something new.
- Don't waffle. Remember that employers don't have time to read every word of your CV. Long paragraphs and sentences put people off, so try bullet-points to break up text. Make sure your CV is no longer than two pages long - employers don't want your life history, they just want to see that you've got what it takes to do the job.
- Don't list any failures. Employers have enough trouble finding someone who is right for the job - they don't need help finding reasons not to employ you. If you have to include a mistake from your past, make sure you show the employer that you learnt something from the experience.

Keep it simple

Personal details

Start off with your full name, address, home and mobile phone numbers and email address. If you are offered an interview, the employer will want to get hold of you so give him as many options as possible.

Summary/professional profile

This is the No1 area for selling yourself. Set out your main skills and personal qualities but keep it interesting and tight - one paragraph should do to cover everything.

Education and qualifications

List your qualifications and education history, with the most recent first. You don't need to list the grades for each exam you have passed unless they were exceptional results - simply listing the number and type of exams you've passed is fine. Also, list any relevant professional organisations you belong to and training courses you have been on.

Work experience

Start with your most recent position and work backwards, giving addresses along with start and finish dates. Set out your main responsibilities, duties and most importantly achievements, along with any skills you picked up or improvements you made while you were there. This is a really important section in your CV so make it count - but don't waffle.

If you have not had a full-time job before, detail any part-time jobs you may have held or any placement you have been on.

Other skills

Set out any computer skills you may have and the software you are most familiar with. Can you type, do shorthand or speak a foreign language fluently? If you have a driving licence, let the employer know. If it's clean, tell them.

Interests & hobbies

Briefly list what you get up to in your spare time. Put down any positions you hold in clubs or associations, along with any responsibilities and achievements.

References

Make sure you have at least two people (including one from your previous or current job) who will tell an employer what a thoroughly nice person you are and what a potential asset to the company you would be.

If you want to list them now make sure you include their name, job title, postal & e-mail address and contact phone numbers. Alternatively, just put "Available on request" so the employer knows to follow up references at a later date.

Add a covering letter

The main aim of a covering letter is to encourage an employer to give you a chance. You want them to read your CV, so sell it to them. You should always enclose a covering letter when applying for a job - most employers won't consider you unless you do.

A covering letter should let the employer know why you are interested in the job and why you think you can do it.

The hints and tips below should point you in the right direction:

- Keep it simple. A covering letter should be short and to the point - no more than six paragraphs.
- Mention the job. If you are replying to an advert, mention what the job is and where you saw it. The company may be advertising for other positions and it may not be clear which job you are applying for.
- Sell yourself. Explain why you are the perfect candidate for the job. Show off your strengths and experience. Refer to your CV - if it goes missing then at least an employer will know that you've sent it.
- Check it for mistakes. A silly spelling mistake in a covering letter is likely to cost you your chance of getting an interview. Also, make sure it is addressed to the right person in the right department.

A covering letter can be just as important as a CV in getting you an interview. It's your first point of contact with your potential employer - so make it count.

MISSING - PLEASE HELP

This is Francis, our beautiful and beloved cat. He was last seen on Tuesday 9th September between Ridgmont and Steppingley. He is only a year old, is microchipped and he is a distinctive light grey tabby. We would ask everyone if they could check their sheds and garages, and let us know if he is spotted. We all miss him hugely, and are offering a reward of £250 for his safe return. Many thanks in advance, Ellie and Alex.

Department For Transport
THE CENTRAL BEDFORDSHIRE COUNCIL (WOODSIDE LINK HOUGHTON REGIS) DEVELOPMENT CONSENT ORDER 2014
THE PLANNING ACT 2008 AND THE INFRASTRUCTURE PLANNING (ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT) REGULATIONS 2009
NOTICE OF A DECISION ON AN APPLICATION FOR AN ORDER GRANTING DEVELOPMENT CONSENT
The Secretary of State for Transport gives notice under regulation 23 of the Infrastructure Planning (Environmental Impact Assessment) Regulations 2009 that a decision has been made on an application by Central Bedfordshire Council of Priory House, Monks Walk, Chickands, Bedfordshire SG4 7 5TD, for an Order granting development consent under the Planning Act 2008 ("the application").
The application was for development consent to construct a new road linking the Woodside Industrial Estate in Houghton Regis to the planned Junction 11A of the M1, and to carry out all associated works. The Order permits the Council to acquire, compulsorily or by agreement, land and rights in land and to use land for this purpose. The Order also makes provision in connection with the maintenance of the new section of highway. The Secretary of State has decided, following consideration of the report of the Examining Authority who conducted an examination into the application that development consent should be granted for the project, and has therefore made the above Order under section 114(1) of the Planning Act 2008. The statement prepared under section 116(1) of the Planning Act 2008 and regulation 23(2)(d) of the Infrastructure Planning (Environmental Impact Assessment) Regulations 2009 containing the content of the decision, the requirements imposed in connection with the development, the main reasons and considerations on which the decision is based including relevant information about the participation of the public, the main measures to avoid, reduce and offset any major adverse effects of the development, and information regarding the right to challenge the decision and the procedures for doing so, can be viewed on the Planning Inspectorate's website (<http://www.planningportal.gov.uk/infrastructure>)

BUT OF CORSA

The fourth-generation Vauxhall Corsa delivers similar dimensions to the old car - but that's as far as the similarities go. With a fresh chassis and suspension and a three-cylinder petrol engine that takes star billing, it also gets a classier interior. Keep your eye on this one. It could give the Ford Fiesta a real tough time.

The Corsa has always been a pretty entertaining steer and Vauxhall is looking to continue that trend. Underpinning this latest fourth-generation car is a completely redesigned chassis with precisely zero carry-over components from the last model. It sports a 5mm lower centre of gravity, a stiffer front sub-frame and a sharper suspension geometry. The electrically-assisted power steering gets a City mode for you to twirl around effortlessly when parking, but receives a UK-specific tune to cater for our roads. Internal friction has been minimised, as has understeer. Both Comfort and Sport suspension set ups have improved dampers that aid ride quality.

The star of the Corsa's engine range is the 1.0-litre, 3-cylinder turbo petrol unit. Recognising that diesel engines don't always make the big sales numbers in the supermini sector, Vauxhall has instead devoted its attention to super-efficient petrol units. The 1.0-litre is the only production three-cylinder engine on the market with a balancer shaft, helping it combat noise, vibration and harshness. This Euro6-compliant engine is offered on either 90 or 115PS power outputs and both manage 170Nm of torque at just 1,800rpm. An improved version of Vauxhall's 1.4 turbo engine is also featured and there are two budget naturally-aspirated petrol engines - a 1.2 and a 1.4-litre. Big improvements to the 1.3 CDTi diesel have elevated it to Euro 6 emissions standards. Vauxhall has announced two six-speed gearboxes, a manual and an automatic, delivering greater efficiency and a slicker shift action.

Straight away, you'll spot similarities to the front end of the ADAM model and that's no coincidence, this looking set to become the Vauxhall family face for the foreseeable future. That means a rounded, friendly look with a broader front grille than Corsas of old. The overall proportioning isn't that much of a departure, this car retaining the somewhat tall and narrow shape of the third generation model. It's almost identical in length to that car too but all of this improved model's body panels are new and provide greater definition between the 'sporty' look of the three-door and the 'premium' five-door models.

It's said that while the key to happiness is hard to define, the root of unhappiness is easy. It's trying to please all of the people, all of the time. Yet that's exactly what the modern supermini needs to do. It's a virtually impossible task and it's a tribute to the talent of the best of the current crop that they manage to do so much so well. The Corsa has long been a stalwart in this sector, but time and technology had overtaken the MK3 version. This fourth-generation car looks to have the talent to dive right back into the fray.

At first, it looks like a mere restyle, but it's much more than that. Here's a car that's been designed from a clean sheet of paper, with an enormous development budget behind it. Available in both petrol and diesel guises, manual or auto, with three doors or five, the Corsa is off to a promising start.

FIFTY UP: Mark Cullen slots home the opener on his 50th Luton appearance

Pools news is good

HATTERS

LEAGUE TWO
HARTLEPOOL UNITED 1
LUTON TOWN 2

BY NICK LOUGHLIN
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

JIM Stevenson's first goal for Luton Town crowned a complete away display at Hartlepool United as John Still's side continue to stamp their authority in League Two.

The Hatters had led 1-0 at the break after Mark Cullen combined with Pelly Ruddock Mpanzu to score on his 50th appearance for the club, before Stevenson scored from close range.

There was still time for the hosts to grab one back through a Neil Austin penalty in injury time but Luton held firm to make it seven league games unbeaten and remain in fourth spot.

Centre-half Steve McNulty was outstanding at the back, swatting away Pools time and time again in a superb individual display.

However, Luton didn't have things all their own way early on as Mark Tyler had to be alert after just four minutes to deny Charlie Wyke, who had turned and fired at goal from around 25 yards.

A minute later and the Hatters were away on the counter attack.

Ruddock Mpanzu, playing on the right of a front-three, broke away through the middle and only a saving block by home centre-half Austin denied him a clear chance.

Ryan Brobbel then tested Tyler from 25 yards, but his confident shot was always rising over the bar.

A long, testing free-kick from the left by Andy Drury landed towards the far post, where Cullen headed back across goal, but Austin was in the way.

Another good Drury delivery had the hosts in trouble but goalkeeper Scott Flinders came through a crowd to clear, wiping out two Hatters players such was his determination.

Luton were then relieved not to concede a penalty on 30 minutes.

Wyke got into the penalty area and turned across Luke Wilkinson who seemed to fell the striker as he went to ground, but referee Paul Tierney gave nothing.

Then midfielder Matthew Bates made a break into the Hatters' area, and was picked out by winger Brobbel but his curling header was pushed onto the bar by Tyler.

But the Hatters, after coming under some home pressure, sneaked ahead on 40 minutes.

Jonathan Smith's slide-rule pass was played inside left back Dan Jones by Ruddock Mpanzu for Cullen to get in on goal, pick his spot and fire low under Flinders.

Dees win late as Luton and Stockwood lose

RUGBY UNION

BY TIM BARTLETT
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

LUTON RFC slipped to a 41-22 defeat against Old Priorians in London 1 North yesterday.

Tom Mahendran grabbed a Luton try but his side were 20-10 behind at half time in Ealing, and despite Romanian Alex Comanescu and Garry Jahn crossing after the break, they were powerless to prevent defeat.

Elsewhere, Dunstablians won 25-22 against Lutterworth in Midlands 2 East South.

"We started really brightly, and put them on the back foot – that was a really tough game," said Dees inside centre Scott Warren.

Leading 5-3 at the break, Dees won the second half 20-19, securing the points with the last kick of the game through a Kev Boland penalty.

Boland got the points going with an early penalty, and then added a try which he converted. Matt Anderson crossed the whitewash for Dees' second try, converted by Boland, to set up the grandstand finish.

With the score tied at 22-22 Dees were awarded a penalty to win the game and Boland held his nerve and the points were theirs.

In Midlands 3 East South there was disappointment for Stockwood Park who were beaten 29-7 by Oundle.

Park were missing some key players as they slipped to defeat.

"We were defensively quite poor," said Stockwood's president John Humphries. "We made too many mistakes."

Trailing 10-0 at the break, Stockwood came back into the game through a Jamie Hoque try, converted by Jason Carr, to reduce the deficit.

However, three second half tries ended the game as a contest as Stockwood were initially undone by a break-away try against the run of play.

"It's onwards and upwards," said Humphries. "They are a good outfit, but we were poor today."

as Hatters maintain form

Pools, scrapping at the foot of the table with just three wins to their name this season, started the second half with some gusto as they pressed the Hatters back.

Brobbel went closest to an equaliser early on but he was denied by Tyler, his low shot kept out at the foot of the post.

Luton responded with a sweeping counter as Ruddock Mpanzu raced through the middle and fed the advancing Ricky Miller – who went straight into the side after being recalled from his loan at Dover Athletic this week – but his first-time strike fizzed past the post.

It should have been 2-0 on the hour mark as another great Drury free-kick found McNulty in the area but he couldn't place his header past Flinders from eight yards out.

The keeper blocked and, as Smith tried to smash in the rebound, recovered to smother.

The Hatters kept up the pressure, and penned Pools back in their own half. Miller got in on goal, but was shackled by right-back Michael Duckworth and the chance went begging.

Cullen got the ball on to his left foot on the edge of the penalty box and fired well wide. It was his last involvement as he was soon replaced by Paul Benson.

Pools responded with a break of their own, Connor Smith setting up the advancing Duckworth, but his shot didn't ask any questions of Tyler as it drifted wayward.

A free-kick on the edge of the Hatters' area was fired by Jones, but the defensive wall did their job to block.

But the game was finished off with a great free-kick at the other end.

Benson was dragged down on the edge of the penalty area and although Drury's shot was parried by Flinders, substitute Stevenson ran in to tap into the empty net with his first touch.

Pools got one back in injury time from the penalty spot, Austin crashing home after a two-footed lunge by Scott Griffiths on Bradley Walker, but that was all the joy they got.

Hartlepool United – Flinders, Duckworth, Austin, Harrison, Jones, Woods (Smith 63), Millers, Bates (Walker 79), Hawkins (Franks 88), Wyke, Brobbel. Unused subs: Richards, Nearney, Green, Woodman.

Luton Town – Tyler, Harriman, Wilkinson, McNulty, Griffiths, Drury, Smith, Doyle, Miller (Guttridge 90), Cullen (Benson 71), Ruddock-Mpanzu (Stevenson 80)

Rovers out of the Trophy after Channel Island adventure

FOOTBALL

BY NICK SMITH

sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

BARTON Rovers were beaten 4-0 at Guernsey in the FA Trophy Preliminary Round yesterday afternoon.

This 'overseas' adventure for Barton kicked off at 6pm and is certainly one of the most interesting ties they have played as they made their way to the Channel Islands.

Guernsey play in the Isthmian League Division One South, which is the equivalent level as Barton who are in the Southern League Division One Central, and they proved too strong on the day after Rovers' long journey.

The hosts went in front after 20 minutes through Mark McGrath who slotted home.

Guernsey's second arrived courtesy of Dave Rihoy, although Barton were upset as they believed the referee missed a foul in the build-up.

In the second half, Kez Mahon went through one-on-one but got his shot horribly wrong when trying to add a third for the Channel Islanders, but Luke Winch helped himself to a brace to complete the scoring.

Meanwhile, Dunstable Town fell to fifth in the division, behind opponents Weymouth, when the visiting Terras won 3-1 in the Calor Southern Premier League.

Stewart Yetton netted for the visitors with just three minutes gone and then doubled his and his side's tally just before the half hour mark from the spot.

Ben Herd got The Blues off the mark with 70 minutes gone, converting a penalty of his own but any hopes of a comeback were scuppered when Chris McPhee netted the third for the visitors.

Dunstable are now winless in three in the league and have picked up just one point from those games.

There was better luck for the other Dunstable team in action, with AFC winning 2-1 away at Stotfold in the Spartan South Midlands Premier League.

Jimmy Hartley opened the scoring for Dunstable with 12 minutes gone, before Stotfold equalised in the 24th minute.

Leon Cashman netted what proved to be the winner with 37 on the clock.

In the Spartan South Midlands Division One, Crawley Green ran out 5-1 home winners over Wodson Park, while in Division Two Totternhoe and Kent Athletic battled to a 2-2 draw and The 61 FC lost 3-1 away to New Bradwell St Peter.

Winning mentality brings Still further satisfaction

PURPLE PATCH: Jim Stevenson wheels away after scoring yesterday
Picture: Gareth Owen

HATTERS

BY NICK LOUGHLIN
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

LUTON Town boss John Still insists his side's ability to adapt to the contrasting demands of the Football League was there for all to see as they extended their unbeaten run to seven games with a 2-1 win at Hartlepool United yesterday.

Mark Cullen put the Hatters ahead on his 50th appearance for the club just before half-time, allowing Jim Stevenson to wrap up the points with his first Luton goal nine minutes from the end.

Neil Austin's late penalty was the only disappointment in what was otherwise a largely complete away performance – one that kept the Hatters fourth in League Two.

And having come through their latest test with flying colours, Still admits his side are proving to be a hard fixture for anyone in the division.

"I'm delighted," he said. "We said before the game every game is going to be different – it's not all about passing and pretty football like last season."

"Hartlepool have changed manager and had a good result last week at Exeter who were on a good run."

"Conditions were difficult – for both teams – but this was about showing a winning mentality."

"Everyone has worked hard, done their job, and it was a really good away performance in not the best conditions."

"The first goal was very good, well worked and the second was well taken."

"I feel we really were in control and we dealt with all they threw at us. We broke well, I was pleased with that."

"We've put a good run together, we have two home games to look forward to.

"I'm satisfied with how we are playing, satisfied with my squad of players and how things are going."

Still had recalled striker Ricky Miller from a loan spell at Dover for the fixture at Victoria Park as Ross Lafayette had required surgery on a hernia.

And with the 25-year-old slotting in with great success, Still insists he stands as a great example of how a great attitude can be rewarded.

"I brought Ricky Miller back from Dover, he's been doing well at Dover, and he did very well," he added.

"He stretched them and his pace is a big asset."

"It always pleases me when the young lads contribute to the game. We are trying to push the young ones through. Ricky having played a few games at Dover, he was sharp and ready."
